MN DFL Disability Caucus

“Empowering persons with disabilities, encouraging political participation, and dismantling discriminatory policies in Minnesota”

About the DFL

The Democratic–Farmer–Labor Party today is the Minnesota arm of the national Democratic Party, the oldest political party in the world. Its history is distinctive, however, because it also has its roots in third-party protest movements. The DFL came into being in its modern form when the Minnesota Democratic and Farmer–Labor parties merged in April 1944.

Since then, the MN DFL has worked to defend Civil and Human Rights, keep government accessible, support education, and advocate on behalf of issues that are central to the livelihood of all Minnesotans.

About the Disability Caucus

The Disability Caucus of the MN DFL works to promote the participation of persons with disabilities in the political and electoral process in the state of Minnesota.

We support the ideals of the Democratic party and its causes.

We look to increase awareness of the issues facing persons with disabilities in Minnesota.

We encourage you to join us in advocating for a vitally important community in our state.

Important Issues to the Disability Caucus

- Ensuring that public facilities are accessible to the disability community
- Providing improved compensation for personal care assistants
- Advocating better healthcare options for persons with disabilities
- Lowering the cost of metro mobility
- Eliminating the waiting list for waivers
- Advocating for the construction of handicap-accessible housing facilities
