CONSTITUTION OF THE
SENATE DISTRICT 29
DEMOCRATIC-FARMER-LABOR PARTY

The name of this organization is the Senate District 29 Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party (the "Unit").

Section 1.   The Unit is governed by the DFL State Constitution and Bylaws, except as provided in this document.[1]

Section 2.   This Constitution is subordinate to the pertinent parts of the State DFL Constitution and Bylaws and the State DFL Official Call. Parliamentary matters not governed by this Constitution and its Bylaws, nor by the rules of the body in question, nor by the State DFL Constitution and Bylaws, nor by the State DFL Official Call, shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order, newly revised.

Section 3.   This Constitution may be amended by a majority vote of the delegates at the Unit Convention and will supersede all previous Constitutions and Bylaws of the Unit. Amendments will take effect upon adjournment of the Convention at which it was adopted. A copy of this constitution and any amendments to it shall be filed with the State DFL Party Office.

Section 4.   The Unit may adopt bylaws concerning matters not expressly governed by nor in conflict with the State DFL Constitution and Bylaws and this Constitution. Bylaws may be adopted or amended by a majority vote of the Unit convention or by a 60 percent affirmative vote at a meeting of the Unit central committee. A copy of any proposed changes in the bylaws must be included in the central committee meeting notice.

Section 5.   Optional provisions

___   (A)   The Unit shall hold annual conventions as provided in the DFL State Constitution and Bylaws.

_X_   (B)   The Unit shall hold a business conference in the odd-numbered year as provided in the DFL State Constitution and Bylaws.

_X_   (C)   There shall be a range of directors between 11 and 19
